ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAMS.

HAVAS AGENCY

Paris, 17.

Great preparations are being made in the different districts for the approaching legislative elections, to take place in the beginning of next month.

According to the new regime the Chamber of Deputies will now count 584 members against 533 formerly.

Berlin, 18.

According to recent advices from still Madrid anti-German demonstrations continue. Nevertheless, diplomatic relations run smoothly, and everything promises a speedy and peaceful termination of existing difficulty.

Rome, 18.

Dr Schloezer, representative of the German Empire near the Vatican, has re-opened diplomatic relations, for some time interupted, with that court. Both Pontifical authorities and German Government appear equally animated with most friendly feelings, and the greatest cordiality is manifested in all their dealings.

PRESS TELEGRAMS.

London 17th—Commenting on the rumor that Spanish statesmen feared England would oblige Spain to observe the stipulations of the commercial treaty recently rejected, or that the British Government will not recognise the rights of Spain to the possession of the Caroline Islands, the Times states that England has officially notified the Spanish Government of her adhesion to the treaty of 1875 and advised Spain to accept arbitration.

St. Petersburg 17th—The Novosti states that orders have been sent to Copenhagen for the construction of two swift cruisers.

According to the same journal the police have received orders to redouble precautions in the event of any disturbance.

St. Thomas (Ontario) 17th—The celebrated elephant Jumbo, purchased by the British Government for $31,000 dollars, was killed by the train at half a mile from this town on the 15th inst.

Warsaw 17th—A decree has been issued for the expulsion of all Austrian residents.

One large factory has expelled all its German employees and replaced them by Russians expelled from Prussia.

Nashville (Tennessee) 17th—A fire that broke out in the Southern Primpt deposits destroyed 6,000,000 c. feet of timber and the adjacent buildings. Losses are estimated at $200,000.

London 17th—The St. Leger yesterday was won by Lord Hastings' Melton rode by Archer.

Lord Bradford's Isobar came in second.

Santiago del Estero 18th—The Rochistas still complain of persecution on the part of the authorities. Many complaints have been made, but apparently without any satisfactory result.

Rosario 18th—Dr. Irigoyen arrived this morning, and was received by an immense crowd of friends.

Col. Oroño, an out-and-out Iriondista, has proposed to place the Comisaria de Policia under the Juarista Committee.

According to advices just received, Don Antonio Miedan, a rich estanciero, has been brutally assassinated.

A new organ, the Comicios, will appear shortly in support of Galvez's candidature.

Montevideo 18th—The greatest activity prevails in official circles, and congratulations have been sent to Minister Montt by the President, on the occasion of the anniversary of Chilian independence. At 6 p.m. a banquet will be given to the Corps Diplomatique. Everything has been supplied by the Hotel de Paris. At 10 p.m. a 'soirée.'

The death is announced of Don Joaquin Freire. His funeral was largely attended.

Last night a council was held at the President's residence. It is believed that Minister Carve's arrival has something to do with this meeting.

The Nacion states that Minister Carve has brought the Bank contract.

Minister Moreno's daughter is very ill, although the doctors announce a slight recovery. The Minister has returned from Buenos Ayres in consequence of his child's illness. It is thought that a new Minister will be appointed.

The weather is fresh and agreeable. It rained last night.

ABOLITION OF THE LOTTERIES.

The wave of public censure that abolished the lotteries in 48 hours is the most creditable expression of opinion we have witnessed in this country for very many years, and the extraordinary, or accidental way in which it was done suggests the great truth of Shakespeare's immortal lines:

> There's a divinity that shapes our ends,
> Rough, hew them how we will.

Last week, no man in Buenos Ayres ever dreamt that in 48 hours the whole fabric of lotteries would be swept from this city. No project for that purpose had been brought into Congress, no newspaper had proposed the reform, no meeting had been held, no petitions signed, no application to the Lord Mayor, or the President, or the Ministers; yet, swift as lightning, the measure passed through the house and the voice of public opinion was so unanimous, so emphatic, that before opposition could be raised the law was passed. The debate in the Deputies on this most important measure was purely accidental; it came up with the decussion on the new tax law for the ensuing year—'patentes' for lotteries. At any other time the 'enciso' would have passed 'nem con', but the nuisance of these lotteries was so great, the scandal so notorious, that but a spark fired the whole house, and in an instant Roquistas, Irigoyenistas, Rochistas and Gorostiagonistas all joined, and what began with an idea to increase the tax, ended in ten minutes in a total and absolute prohibition. Again, the passing of this measure in the Senate was an equal surprise; it was done, and so quickly done, that the influences of Municipality and lottery men, and their agents had not time to be invoked. Public morality may say, "veni, vidi, vici." for we have nothing in the history of our Congress passed through with equal rapidity. No one in the Senate had the forehead to oppose the bill. There was a "quousque tandem" feeling not only in the house, but through the city, which the Legislators most properly interpreted, and we call attention to this measure as another evidence how an idea, with public opinion in its favor, runs faster than a railway train and assumes in an instant the full dimension of the most powerful law. We give the following précis of the debate in the Senate, as one of the most honorable incidents in the present session and congratulate both Senators and Deputies on their conduct in the matter:

Senator Rojas first took the floor. He said it would not be necessary to send this matter to a special Committee, as all the Senators had already their minds made up on the subject. He moved that they should vote on it right off "sobre tables."

Senator Carillo said he quite agreed with his honourable confrere. Lotteries were immoral in every way, and involved monetary disturbances.

On a division there were only four votes against dealing with the Bill at once. It was then unanimously passed "en general," and also "en particular" to the 3rd Article.

In reference to Art 4 Senator Zapata said that it was well known that the police had great difficulty in dealing with the gambling dens of the city, and they would have the same in enforcing this new Bill. Neither the Correctional Judge nor the municipality would give the order to the police for domiciliary visits. The Executive could not give it either, and only promised to apply to Congress; but, as usual, had let the matter sleep. He declared that the present Bill would turn out a dead letter if Congress did not give the police full assistance. He proposed this motion:

"Whenever it may be necessary to enter any house to enforce this law, the Correctional Judge shall issue the requisite order."

Senator Civit opposed the motion as unnecessary, as all the lottery agencies would soon disappear. If the amendment were adopted, the Bill would have to go back to the Deputies, and would probably be let slide till next year.

After a short "cuarto intermedio" Senator Carillo took up the running, and said he would vote against the amendment. as the case could be dealt with under the existing laws.

Senator Zapata said that a number of Deputies had just told him that their House would pass the amendment in a jiffey if the Bill were sent back to it. If the amendment were not adopted lottery agencies would be established in private houses where the police could not get at them.

Senator Rojas again spoke "en contra."

Senator Baibiene said the amendment would spoil the Bill. Other means must be adopted. The Executive should be ordered to negotiate with neighbouring Governments to stop the lottery in their countries. When the Lottery Law they were now repealing was voted, the great argument in its favour was that the police here were quite powerless to prevent the sale of foreign lottery tickets. He said he thought neighbouring Governments would not refuse to help the good cause.

On a division both amendments were rejected, and the Bill was passed in its original form.

THE BOULEVARD.

Step by step the Lord Mayor advances with his Boulevard scheme, and we feel pretty confident that before the end of the year the work will be begun in some of those squares that offer no opposition to the scheme, and where the property holders are of accord with Mr Alvear as to the Municipal improvement it will effect. The latest move in the matter is the report of the Municipal Committee of Hacienda methodizing the law, and laying down the rules for carrying it out.

The following is the Ordenanza:

Art. 1—Let the Intendente at once proceed to carry out the Law of 31st October, 1884, according to the following rules:—

2—The expropriation of the properties outside the route of streets mentioned in Art. 1 of the Law, shall only be carried out, where the owners refuse to re-construct the front of their properties either gratuitously or for a small compensation.

3—The same rule holds for properties in the route of the said street, and the Intendente can proceed to expropriate without any special vote of the Consejo.

4—The Intendente shall proceed in like manner in the opening of the avenue from Plaza Mayo to Calle Entre Rios, which shall be 35 metres wide, the works beginning in the squares offering least opposition by the property owners, and the Intendente shall name a parish Committee to arrange with the owners a just price for their properties used by the street, and the Intendente is authorized to reduce the width of the avenue to 30 metres if he considers public convenience so demands.

5—The Intendente is authorized to borrow up to 4 millions $m/n to cover expenses of carrying out this law, whilst regulations and negotiations, the emission of the loan authorized by law of April 28th last, and the proceeds of the properties expropriated and sold to be applied to the payment of same and amortization etc., all properties so expropriated to be sold at public auction, 15 days' notice of same being first published in the newspapers, the area for the new street being first deducted.

6—All edifices facing the Boulevard or Avenue not to exceed 20 metres in height, and no buildings on the Boulevard to be erected without previously presenting at the Office of Municipal Public Works plan of same, so that the façade and architecture along the Boulevard be uniform.

7—The Intendente, at the opening of the regular sessions of the Consejo shall present a report of everything done under and by virtue of this 'ordenanza.'

THE FERIA RURAL, AYACUCHO.

(Communicated).

The Sixth Annual Exhibition of Sheep, Cattle and Horses was opened on Sunday last, at two o'clock, by the enterprising and esteemed President, Señor Don Diego Corkill. The weather was all that could be desired, and the sun shone beautifully all the afternoon, which attracted the inhabitants of the town, who mustered in large numbers.

The Feria is a very pretty and well-selected place for such an exhibition, being close to the railway station. What was once a quinta, with its usual solitude, is now the rendezvous of people largely interested in sheep, cattle, etc.; and the avenue of gum-trees, with three side-walls, now affords splendid shelter for the animals exhibited.

We congratulate the president and his community on selecting such an admirable place, which shews much for their judgment.

As the Show progresses, there is ample provision for further extensions, as their funds will admit from year to year; and in the course of a few years, judging from the very great interest taken in the Feria by the many hard-working, intelligent Bascos who surround Ayacucho, we prophesy a prominent future for the Show.

When the railway is open to Bahia Blanca it will tap a part of the province here that can not only send wool and hides from that port, but also mutton in a frozen state; and sheepfarmers are already beginning to anticipate that, as several of them are changing flocks from merinos to Long-wools, because of the larger carcass, and also the long-woolled sheep are the best payers, to say nothing of their suitability for the camps hereabouts, which, we regret to notice, are so wet just now. Furthermore, we regret to find so many diseases in sheep also—scab, foot-rot, lung-worm, fluke in the liver, are most rampant and abound everywhere, and very great losses have been sustained on all sides.

We are not surprised at "J. L. P." writing us in such strains from this quarter as he did, as we learn that he has been a great sufferer; but all these diseases are to be overcome if the estancieros will take things in time and not let them get the mastery of him. Remedies there are plenty, if the sheep-farmer will only apply them, and he will save the life of every animal; but sheepfarmers look upon the death of an animal too lightly, without learning the cause; for when one animal dies, say of lung-worm, surely this should be an indication of the disease already in his flocks, and he should use preventive measures at once, the same as a farmer does in the old country.

The sheep exhibited on the whole are a very good lot, and will hold their own against any we have seen out of the Buenos Aires auction marts. Mr. David Fahy's Lincoln's were much admired and found ready sale.

The list of sheep exhibitors is as follows:—

HORSES.

Senillosa Hnos, San Felipe.
Juan Alchurron.

These were the only exhibitors of horses, which comprised entires and mares. A grey entire was the admiration of all horse fanciers; and we would like to see other estancieros take as much interest in their breed of horses as Senillosa Hnos.

A great attraction during the Show were fifteen scabby sheep, brought in for Mr. Hayward (the great scab curer) where to show the efficacy of the celebrated Glycerine Dip. Notwithstanding the very bad state of these sheep, Mr. Hayward guarantees a cure in three weeks with one application, and a sign of wool growing on the scabby parts. We look with interest to the report of the jury Mr. Hayward has formed to write on these sheep three weeks hence.

Surely Mr. Hayward is the man we want in our midst to deal with scab in the masterly manner he is doing, as he seems not to fear the very scabbiest sheep so long as it is alive We question whether half of the Dip makers could do as Mr. Hayward is doing, viz, curing sheep with their own hands, with their own Dip, and we are quite sure some manufacturers of tobacco extracts could not.

The President of the Show had the band of music playing close to the pen during the process of curing the sheep, as he welcomed Mr. Hayward as a great benefactor to the estancieros in the partido as he showed people what a simple thing it is tocure scab even in its advanced stage.

The sheep sold well, some of the best Merinos (Rambouillet) realized as much as $200 each, and Lincoln, two tooth rams $50 to $80 each.

Bulls sold at $120 each.

The Show closed Tuesday night, but owing to the enthusiasm taken in it, the band showed its appearance again on Wednesday morning and a very pleasant day was spent in the pretty grounds of the 'Feria' by residents in Ayacucho who seemed bent on having all the enjoyment they could from the 'Feria' of 1885.

PRICES AND GOLD SUPPLY.

(By M. G. Mulhall, F.S.S.)

III. THE CAUSES THAT OPERATE ON PRICES.

Nothing is more fully confirmed by experience than Tooke's remark, that "war has a tendency to raise prices by obstructing or diminishing the supply of commodities." We see, for example, that during the war against Buonaparte in 1801-10, the level of prices (Table A) in Great Britain was 63 per cent. higher than in 1782-90, and that the decade after that of Waterloo was marked by a fall of 32 per cent. During the peace which ensued for 40 years there was a steady decline until the Crimean War, which was attended by a rise; but the greatest shock which the commercial world received in recent times was caused by the American War, the price level for the years 1862-66 being 137 (Table B), that is, 37 per cent. over that of 1841-50. Since then (excepting the two years immediately following the Franco-German War), there has been a steady decline.

Peace, as a natural consequence, brings a fall of prices; for, as Newmarch says, "Whatever causes augment the real wealth and resources of the world serve not only to stimulate trade, but also to keep down prices. The object of all scientific methods applied to commerce and the arts is cheapness, and the tendency of prices is towards decline, by reason of the enlarging facilities and power of production."

McCulloch says: "What affects prices is an increase or diminution of the labour necessary to produce the commodity; and Tooke says: "Causes affecting the cost of production, and the supply and demand for each commodity, account for variation of prices."

If we compare the products of human industry in 1884 with those of 1860 (see Appendix) in ten great branches, namely, coal, iron, grain, cotton, sugar, coffee, wine, wool, tea and tobacco, we find the quantities produced give us the index numbers of 1,000 in 1860, and 1,842 in 1884, that is, a rise of 84 per cent. But in the same interval the steam-power of the world rose from 11½ millions to 29 millions horse-power,* an increase of 152 per cent. We may therefore say that the labour of two men in 1884 was more productive than that of three in 1860, and this alone would account for a fall of at least 30 per cent. in prices. Probably the fall (which has been only 17 per cent. since 1858-60) would have been 30 per cent. if no wars had intervened.

In freights by land and sea there has also been a great saving, in consequence of the greater efficiency of seamen, the result of steam navigation and improved ship-building, and harbour accommodation. The ratios of tons of merchandise borne by each British seaman in twelve months were:

	Tons.
In 1860	101
„ 1870	132
„ 1881	234

The merchant fleets of all nations at present are manned by 692,000 sailor's who carry, on an average, 185 tons per man yearly; but if the proportion were the same as in 1860, we should require almost 1,500,000 sailors for the trade of the world, involving an expense of at least 50 millions sterling more than at present. Here is a saving of 4 per cent. on the gross value of commodities, which at present ranges between 1,300 and 1,400 millions.

In the third place we have cheaper rates of bank interest, the averages for twenty years showing as follows:—

	1861-70.	1871-80.
Great Britain ..	4·23	3·28
Germany	4·56	4·30
Italy	5·69	4·85
Holland	3·98	3·40
Europe	4·30	3·71

With so many causes operating for a fall of prices we need not go to Australia for an explanation, but may rather feel surprised that the fall has not been greater.

(To be Continued)

(Concluded)

I have before me a Report of the General Meeting, as given in the Railway Times of the 18th inst., sent to me in common with other proprietors. In it Mr. van Tromp is reported, and I think correctly, to have said, in reply to me—"That the only satisfaction in listening to me was that nobody appeared to understand me." And, although this is a sweeping assertion, I fear that there is after all much truth in it, for I hold were it otherwise the decision of the proprietors at that meeting would have manifested itself in a very different form. I cannot but recall with astonishment the remarks of Mr. van Tromp on Mr. Parish, and favourably received by the proprietors, at this year's first Special General Meeting, held in February last, and at which I was present, which was more or less to the effect, "that thanks were especially due to Mr. Parish for the improved condition of the affairs of this railway, which had only taken place since he had joined the Board;" and this, as I have said, being favourably received by the proprietors, I confess that the only satisfaction in listening to him was the fact that nobody seemed to understand him; nevertheless, I know there must have been gentlemen on the Board as well as among the proprietors present, that did and could only consider these remarks as very unfair to you and your co-directors.

Mr. Batten, with great knowledge of working and managing of railways, and posted up in the affairs of our railway by personal observations on the spot, in addressing the meeting afterwards, gave undoubtedly good advice, but, in my opinion, he did take and seemed to show a far more favourable aspect for the future than facts could warrant. There can be no doubt that the Central Argentine Railway will greatly improve in its receipts for some years to come, but once the Pacific Line finished to Villa Mercedes, traffic from Mendoza and San Juan, which now swells the receipts of the Central Argentine Railway, will not only be tapped, but will almost cease, going direct, via Villa Mercedes, to Buenos Ayres. Next, I repeat here, as I stated at the General Meeting, that the Buenos Ayres, Rosario, and Sunchales Railway will be carried on with an unbroken gauge to Santiago del Estero and Tucuman into the heart of Bolivia, cutting off all traffic of the Central Argentine Railway from these places much sooner than Mr. Parish, in his address at the same meeting, tried to establish. Granting that he believes what he said, viz., "that it would take a generation to do this." I do not agree with him, for whether proprietors of the Buenos Ayres, Rosario, and Sunchales Railway will or not, they will have to do it, or others will do it for them. Thus and then the Central Argentine Railway will be simply reduced to through traffic with Cordova and local traffic. This latter is of great importance, but already in the South one-half is lost for about ten léagues by the agency of the railway from Rosario to Candelaria, and in the North it will lose one-half of its traffic in Santa Fé by the agency of the "Sunchales Extension" Line. Thus losing one-half of the local traffic of the richest and best lands along the line, lands altogether opened up to agricultural pursuits by the agency of our the Central Argentine Railway, and of which Mr. Batten, with truth, said:—"That its development should always have remained the prerogative of the Central Argentine Railway." Thus this railway will be reduced to a very limited traffic, compared to the one I, and no doubt all other proprietors, looked forward to; and whence the 12 per cent. dividends, of which Mr. Batten seems certain, are to come from, passes my comprehension.

But now, sir, before pointing out to you what may be done for the best under these circumstances, please look at a map! See a Railway with an unbroken gauge from Bahia Blanca, via Buenos Ayres, Rosario, Sunchales, Santiago del Estero, Tucuman, into the very heart of Bolivia, finished in the south, bound to be carried on to the north; where, I ask, will be the Central Argentine Railway, as "the most important Railway in the country, the main artery in the Republic?"

I fear you will have opposition on the Board of the Central Argentine Railway Company from your co-Directors, Mr. Parish and Mr. Shaw, should you propose anything to further interests of the same, for their interests cannot be ours, and your Board appears to me like a house divided against itself. Nevertheless, I will attempt to point out what may be done to lessen coming evils.

1. I should advise the Board to have no transaction with Government regarding purchase or rental of the Andine Railway. Let Government fight its own battle with the Pacific Railway—let it try to carry passengers and goods over their own line to Villa Maria, and if they can do so it will be a benefit to our line.

2. Steps should at once be taken to call attention of Government to the danger of extension of the Buenos Ayres, Rosario and Sunchales Railway towards Santiago del Estero and Tucuman, which would cut their own railway, the "Great Central Northern," off from almost all traffic to and from Cordova. Government should be asked not give any guarantee to any extension, and should also be asked to prevent, if it can, Provincial Governments to give such guarantees—in fact, if possible, should not allow any such extension, which would damage their own interests, even more than those of the Central Argentine Railway. If our Board had taken a similar step regarding the Pacific Railway, I venture to say that Government never would have given a guarantee on its capital, knowing that they repent of it now but alas, too late.

3. The Central Argentine Railway Company should try to gain possession of the Central Northern Railway, by either buying or renting it from the Government, but whether successful in this or not, it should at once, as also urged by Mr. Batten, lay another rail along its own line, to accommodate the narrow gauge rolling-stock, thus carrying goods, without break of bulk, over the Great Central Northern Line. Doing this may put any extension, of the line from Sunchales, off for many years.

4. I beg here, sir, to call your attention to a concession, applied for by Mr. Taylor, to construct a railway from Junin, the present terminus of the Pacific Railway, to Sunchales—for the present this concession has been thrown out by Congress, I think only in May last. If you draw a straight line from Junin to Sunchales you will find that this line would cross the Central Argentine Railway at the Cañada de Gomez, heavily tapping again the local traffic of the latter. Would not be advisable for us at once to commence a branch line, from, say the Correa Station on the Central Argentine Railway in the direction of Sunchales? Such a line would neutralise, to a very great extent, all loss of traffic sure to arise through the agency of the "Sunchales Extension" line. Such a line would pass by or through mostly English settlements of great importance for fully seventy-five miles, many of which, being hereafter a few leagues nearer to the "Sunchales Extension" Railway, will send their produce by that line. Such a line would lead to great development of a rich district, and I feel certain would pay at once a good return on the outlay—another branch towards the south, to some point on the Pacific Railway, might be considered later on. I pray that this may be most earnestly considered by you and your co-directors, and that the Company may be able to take advantage of a paying facility, instead of letting outsiders step in and benefit to the great disadvantage of our line.

Trusting the suggestions I have made may have your kind and patient consideration, as well as that of all Proprietors of the Central Argentine Railway, to whom I purpose sending a copy of this letter,

I remain, Sir,
Your very Obedient Servant,
Paul Krell.

ARGENTINE LITERATURE.

Buenos Ayres, September 16th.

To the Editor of the STANDARD.

Dear Sir,

I was somewhat surprised to read in your Editor's Table of the 15th the following note:—

"An Argentine Literary Society was started on Sunday with great enthusiasm, and we wish it every success. It seems rather curious that a Literary Society was not started long ago in this land of born poets, authors, scribblers, spouters, etc."

The misleading nature of the above paragraph, Mr. Editor, must be apparent when you call to mind, as you, doubtless, must, on our mere mention of it, the very creditable Argentine Literary Society, established several years ago, and still in a most thriving condition, in the bosom of the Salvador College, under the name of "Academia Literaria del Plata." If I am not mistaken, I have frequently read reports in your own columns of the pleasant literary entertainments given, from time to time, by the members of this flourishing centre, and, I am sure, many of your readers have accompanied me in the pleasure derived from listening to and reading the literary compositions brought forth under the auspices of the "Academia," by our friends, Doctors O'Farrell, Galbraith, Klappenback and others of the "ex-alumni" of the good Fathers of the Society of Jesus.

I may here mention, that it is shortly the intention of the "Academia" to hold a grand literary competition in honour of its patroness, St. Rose of Lima, and I avail myself of the opportunity to express the hope that it will be the means of developing, and more fully displaying, some of the most brilliant talents of the innumerable company of "born poets, authors, scribblers, spouters," etc., who call Argentina their home.

I beg to remain,
Dear Sir,
Yours respectfully,
A. J. L. W.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Dr. Irigoyen arrived yesterday by special train at Rosario, where he was well received. The Chief of Police offered to place a force of 'vigilantes' at his orders, to maintain order during the great demonstration which they announce. We think the sooner this distinguished candidate gets back to Buenos Aires the better, and we should not advise any of the other candidates to attempt a Midlothian campaign in the provinces, at least until after next April. Dr. Irigoyen will arrive at the Central Station on Sunday morning, and there will be a great gathering to welcome him.

The news most current in town yesterday was that the Provincial Bank had received a telegram from London stating that much anxiety exists about the Carolinas question, and it may possibly affect the money market. This would lead us to suppose that our colleague the Correo Español was rather premature with its news that the Germans had answered the ultimatum in a most friendly way and evacuated Yap. It is really very hard to know what to believe in times like the present. However, as we have got no code message from our brother-editor, who is in Rhyl, we suppose that nothing worthy of a message over the cable has occurred.

Last night at 8 o'clock there was to be a special meeting of the Municipality to consider the new ordenanza, which we give in another column, about the Boulevard. We hope at last they had a quorum.

Telegrams from London yesterday say that all the requisite capital to continue the Maldonado or Eastern Railway has been raised. This is good news for the Banda Oriental, as this new railway will meet a want long felt there.

Mr. Ferrari, the great opera empresario, arrived back yesterday from Rio. Some of our colleagues say that already he has engaged a splendid opera company for Buenos Aires next year. We hope so, but unless things settle down greatly, it looks as if we shall have other fish to fry next May.

The Correo Espanol published a bulletin yesterday giving news from Madrid of that day's date. All Spain is moved with a friendly feeling towards the Plate, for the sympathetic telegram sent off from here the other day. The fact of the matter is we all like the Gallegos; they are an industrious good class of people, and in no country under the Sun are they more welcome than in the Plate. We hope to see this Caroline question result in much good to this country, and increase the Spanish emigration to the Republic.

We publish to-day the conclusion of Mr. Krell's letter, which is very severe, and we think the people in the River Plate who understand the question will consider that the Central Argentine Railway Directors themselves are to blame for not getting the concession of the Sunchales Railway ten years ago, when there was no one to compete with them. The extension to Picassa they will probably lose also, if they do not look sharp.

The Deputies were busy all day yesterday with the Budget, and it was rumoured that they intend to shut up half of the Department of Engineers, which caused little short of consternation in scientific circles. Mr. White, chief of the Department, was summoned to the House at 4 o'clock, to give his opinion on the proposed reductions.

Although we all must admit that the lowering of the side walks is a move in the right direction, we fear we must say that the inconvenience almost surpasses the benefit of the improvement. Ladies and children should not walk about the streets for the present, as accidents are frequent in all the most fashionable streets in town, and to walk through some of the streets at night is "to jump the life to come."

The new English passenger agency, we are happy to say, is proving a great convenience to the travelling public, and is receiving the widest support; all the first class passengers by the Tagus and Gironde patronized this agency and expressed their great satisfaction at the service. It is indeed a great point gained for strangers when landing here to be able to deal with a respectable agency to land their luggage and clear it at the Custom House, and we recommend all our friends to support it.

We are happy to state that the announced duel between two officers has not come off.

The Diario repeats the Nacional story about a cargo of arms being shipped purposely from Montevideo to compromise the La Plata Government; we hardly think that any political excitement would justify such a trick.

The Jury of the International Invention's Exhibition, London, acting on the recommendation of the Juries appointed by His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, the President of the Exhibition, have just awarded Messrs. R. Hornsby & Sons, Ld., Grantham, the following:—

A Gold Medal for String-binding Harvesting Machine.
A Gold Medal for Finishing Thresher.
A Silver Medal for Enclosed Grass Mower.
A Silver Medal for Undertype Compound Steam Engine.

M. Forrester & Co. are agents for this celebrated firm.

The heat on Thursday night was something awful, and a pledge of what is to come later on in the season: Doors and windows open in every house in town. Paunchy papas and mammas mopping their perspiring countenances, and even the weediest and lankiest sons and daughters doing ditto. Such a stewing night at the fag end of winter has not been known for years. The tremendous downpour of rain at 9½ o'clock cleared the air a little. Our friends in Barracas and the Boca shook in their beds and boots, as they recalled the fact that this is the anniversary of the terrible flood down there last year. It may be as well to add that nothing whatever has been done to avoid a repetition of the disaster. Some of our Sanitary chemists describe the stench that hung over the city, previous to the rain, as a highly rectified compound of sulphuret of Basurium Bonærense, mixed with sewer gas, the deleterious effect of which we are pretty certain to experience some day. Several of our daily bread men reached their offices yesterday in a fainting condition, owing to having had to run the gauntlet of twenty snagged-up basura carts in Calle Rivadavia.

No fewer than 29 "individuos," amongst them a brace of 'acopiadores,' are in jail in Bragado for a big steal in the hide line.

The Rosario papers give an amusing account of a dignity ball in low life there which ended in a free fight, and fainting amongst the matrons, owing to one of the damsels present having eloped before supper. The 'cronista' is ungallant enough to say that the faces of all the ladies present bore a strong resemblance to untanned leather.

Jumbo is dead! Such was the sad cable news yesterday morning. He was pulverized in a railway smash; at least so the telegram says; but it is just as likely to be an advertizement hoax by Barnum's successor.

The Lottery men and the Lord Mayor are fairly floored by the suddenness with which the Senate has followed the action of the Deputies and finished off the lottery nuisance. On the 1st of January next lotteries will end for ever in this country; but tickets of foreign lotteries will of course be sold on the sly, as they were before. What provision for the support of the hospitals does Congress intend to make. If they are lost; as grottoes and Boulevards are more in favour in that quarter than hospitals. We hear that the boulevard will be commenced long before Christmas Day.

Parties building new houses should find out what the City Improvement people mean to do about house drains. Otherwise they may be put to a lot of expense.

Dr Wilde, Minister of Education, leads this evening to the altar of Hymen, one of the loveliest girls in our high society, Miss Oliviera, who is only 16 years of age. We wish the distinguished couple every happiness.

Lieut. Colonel Medeyros, who has been seventy five years in the army, has asked a pension from Congress. It is a shame he has not had one long ago. He also complains of having been left in his present rank, when men who were not even born when he was covered with wounds received in the struggle for Independence, have been passed over his head and are Generals to-day.

The city of Catamarca, or rather its Municipality, is about to hire a Public Analyst to look after "native industry" in the adulterated and poisonous drink line. Even the most remote, melancholy and slow province is not free from the "spirit" of the age.

In a divorce case before the ecclesiastical authorities in Rosario the other day, the lady, who was plaintiff, asked as a great favour that her portrait should not be put in the newspapers. Some wag had told the poor woman that it was customary to do so.

The Rajneri opera company will go to Rosario when it finishes here.

A black Leporello got a syringe full of vitriol in his visage on Thursday night in Calle Suipacha while watching a jealous fair one whom his master had thrown over when he got married, and who had threatened to 'do' for him. The girl was disguised as a man; but the negro knew her, and stuck to her so closely, lest she should harm his master, that she let fly at him what was probably intended for his 'patron.' She ran back at once to her house, and the police caught her in the act of donning woman's toggery again. She denies the whole thing, and says the nigger is a liar. There were no witnesses to the act. It is to be hoped that vitriol-throwing is not about to come into use here.

The Prensa gives a long account of the San Jose Lottery of Buenos Aires by which the Chilians, Peruvians, and Brazilians are victimised. The clever swindlers publish imaginary telegrams from this city announcing the principal winning numbers, and now and then give out a big prize as a bait (We have heard of this trick nearer home.) It takes so well that the swindlers have made a stupendous fortune, and are still adding to it.

"Do you know how," said a bashful swain to his sweetheart, 'that doctors say there is danger of contracting diseases by kissing?' 'So they say,' she murmured. 'Do you believe it?' Well, I haven't much faith in doctors,' she replied, blushing furiously; 'besides I've been vaccinated."

Our Rosario contemporaries declare that place to be insufferable on 'dias de fiesta.' There is no place to go to; and the men pass the day loafing about cafes, playing dominoes and getting fuddled long before dinner time. What the ladies do with themselves is not stated. We have never found old Rosario such a very dull place.

A kind subscriber tells us we were all wrong in our remarks about Panama hats the other day. We think not; but have no objection to leave the case to the arbitration of our friend Sommer.

A lot of cigars, gloves, and all kinds of things consigned to a firm here was seized in the Custom House the other day, packed as 'fish' from Montevideo. Every day in the week there is, it is asserted, lots of smuggling going on through the Custom House, but it cannot be detected, owing to shortness of hands, connivance, and lots of other things.

The City Improvement Commissioners and the Lord Mayor are at loggerheads about the ownership of the earth excavated for the Drainage Works. It is very generally believed that his Lordship rather enjoys loggerheads. The Pampa had some very amusing chaff of his Lordship yesterday in reference to his grotto mania, which certainly does seem to be growing by what it feeds on. By far his worst attempt in the grotto line is that at his own house in Calle Juncal. It is hideous beyond all conception of hideousness. He has a new grotto in hand now in Plaza San Martin.

The extension of the Tucuman Railway will be finished to Las Conchas river (180 kils) in November.

One hundred and fifty crimes and offences of all kinds were recorded in this city in August. Only one British-er was "run in."

The Spaniards have only themselves to thank for the Carolina mess. Several months ago the English and North American merchants in Yap warned the Governor of the Phillipines of the hostile intentions of the Germans; but H.E. has evidently the "mañana" drop so charateristic of Spanish blood, and he pottered and foozled over the matter until it was too late.

"The biter bitten!" A Lottery man in Calle Rivadavia was swindled out of 200 Nats on Thursday by another in the same trade, by means of a falsified ticket. There should be honour among thieves.

Signs are taxed 5 cents per letter every year in Cuba, and the ingenious Cuban does not put up a sign if he can help it, or else paints on it an emblem, as a boot, a trunk, or a cigar. If words must be employed, it is not an uncomon practice to dash a daub of paint across the lettering, producing a legal obliteration, yet leaving an inscription that can still be deciphered.

Carts with long rods of iron or planks of wood are a serious danger in crowded streets. On Thursday in Calle Lima, a long rod of iron on a cart went slap-bang through the window of Dr. Becasa's carriage, and the worthy medico himself was within an ace of being spitted like a "becassine" ready for roasting.

In its "Cronica Social" yesterday the Republica gave it witheringly hard to the too-abundant horseback element in Buenos Ayres High Life. Our colleague's remarks are hard but true, and may have a good effect in curbing the pretension he lashes so deservedly.

What is a Rioja hail storm to this? Listen: "The Vernon County (Mo.) Leader ssay of the recent hail storm: 'Ice was in places piled in heaps from three to five feet in depth, and chunks are said to have fallen that two hands could not span. The stories seem incredible, but one has only to see the roofs battered, the trees barked and stripped, and the fields or green destroyed to be convinced.'"

As usual there is a lot of favoritism (and worse) going on "in re" the relaying of the footways, which has become a far greater nuisance than the Lotteries. In some places where the sidewalks were perfectly good and far better than since they have been relaid, the house were forced to pay for the operation. In others, the mostricketty pathways have been left undisturbed. This is the old story, and will be till the end of the chapter.

There is great fear that Dr Pelligrini will be torn to pieces in a friendly way when he arrives here on Monday next, such is the anxiety amongst speculators to get the truth about the Loan out of him. Such a prodigious lot of thundering lies have been told about this loan, that a little truth would be a refreshing novelty this close weather.

A good many people are asking what is to become of the charitable institutions of the city, which the spasmodic blow given to the lotteries by Congress will leave utterly without resources. The Legislature should not break up for the holidays without providing for the support of the hospitals, otherwise there will be a repetition of what occured when the Lottery was abolished before. and there was neither medicine, food, clothing, bedclothes, or even beds in the hospitals, and the patients used to die in dozens on the bare floors of the asylums. It is to be hoped that the hospitals will not again he abandoned in such a shocking manner. The Municipality has money for them, and what it has is being squandered on grottoes, boulevards, worthless paving stones and all kinds of rubbish and nonsense.

The year is getting old, 1886 is treading on its heels. Monsieur Joly has issued the first Almanack for the new year.

Professor: "Gentlemen will please close their books." After a lapse of a few seconds, observing that his polite command had not been obeyed, he added. "Those who are not gentlemen will please close their books."

The Savanhah News gives the following as a notice posted in a post office on the Georgia Pacific Railroad: "Not ce—The males on the Ga Pac arrivei evay day at 10. 40 a m and 5.25 p m u less the R R runs of the track or a old engine gets out fix or the biler bursrs or something else happens you no. Resp P M."

The Civil Chamber ordered yesterday the payment of 20,000 Nats to the lawyers—Messrs Martinez and Chas—who fixed up the will of the late Mr. Terence Moore. It's a stiff fee, but perhaps, not excessive where the estate is so large. We hear there will be no lawsuit.

John Rosas, the lucky Bombero, says he dont care a snap about Congress having abolished the Lotteries. He won the big prize in the last Mendoza Lottery. At least he is supposed to have won it, and is acting as if he did. But "all the world's a stage, and all the men and women merely players." All the men and women here, and even the boys and girls are certainly lottery players.

"What have you in that package?" was the question put to a Waterbury clergyman on a Sunday afternoon some years ago as he sat in the station awaiting the arrival of a train. "Dried tongue," was the laconic reply. It seemed that the divine was on the way to a neighbouring town to exchange with a clerical brother, and was to preach two old sermons.

A man was sitting for his photograph. The operator said—"Now, sir, look pleasant and smile a little." The man smiled, and then the operator said—"Oh! that will never do; it is too wide for the instrument."

Dysentery, Cholera Fever, Ague Coughs, Colds, &c.

Dr J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne

(Ex Army Medical Staff)

IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's—See Times, July 12th 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than

Dr J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates health action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensive.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for coughs, consumption, bronchitis, asthma.

CHLORODYNE effectually checks and arrests too often fatal diseases Diphtheria Fever, Croup, Ague.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charming Diarrhoea, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer Toothache, Meningites, &c.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemist, Medical Hall, Simla, Jan-6th 1880. To J. T. Davernport, Esq., 22, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London—"Dear Sir, we embrace this opportunity of congralulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly-esteemed medicine, DR COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances ad infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of DR. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE in Diarrhoea, and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhoea, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a "deliberate breach of faith on the part of the chemist to prescriber and patient alike." We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain, His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists."

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all classes."

CAUTION—None genuine without the words 'Dr J. Collis Browne or the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

As the steamer that bears Dr Pellegrini to these shores approaches, the financial wiseacres appear to gather fresh information, no doubt by a flying-fish express, of what he not only has done, but of what he intends doing. The market may be prepared for a great deal of Pellegrini literature in the papers, and the mind of speculators will be quite as actively employed in the concoction of startling reports as in the sale and purchase of gold in the hall. Although Dr Pellegrini is still several hundred miles distant from the gold ring, his ghost must have already appeared in some editorial sanctum, and the valuable sensational information that is being gathered and published about his negotiation reflects the greatest credit on the detective abilities of those who, to all intents and purposes, may, after all, know more about the loan business than the National Commissioner. Our London friends are evidently determined that the R. Plate shall not be in the dark, as the arcana that are leaking out of the negotiation show that people here are well posted up with the intentions and doings of both the Syndicate and Commissioner.

A sickly sensation crept over the gold bears when they read in the columns of a leading morning colleague, that the bankers and holders of the First Series of the Thirty Million Loan would in all probability ask this Government to pay them off at par the bonds which cost them 85 o/o or less. Although there is nothing alarming in the mere fact, the announcement was couched in such dogmatic terms, and with such pessimist insinuations, that the bears are convinced that this extortionate demand will prove an effectual check to the whole Pellegrini negotiation. To make matters worse, the colleague in question adds that some disinterested banking friends of the Argentine Republic have bought up £200,000 of those bonds from Morgan at 85, in order to complicate the business and make the demand to be paid at par more forcible. These details sufficed to remove all doubts from the minds of those who, perhaps, at first were willing to suspect the veracity of the news, and these startling announcements were, no doubt, the chief cause of the resistance with which the fall in the gold premium was opposed this evening.

Whilst the gold market was still deeply affected by the above news of the morning, the evening papers put in their midday appearance with further details about the loan and its interminable negotiation. According to an afternoon colleague, Dr Pellegrini returns a wiser man, and with a scheme in his pockets that is essentially embryonic, as it is shapeless and will need months to come to maturity. According to this authority Pellegrini left London with the verbal assurances of prominent bankers, that they were willing to re-open the negotiation on condition that the contract should not be "ad referendum" and not need the sanction of Congress; that they were prepared to meet the Government half way, by abandoning the claims which they put forward in the first negotiation, and which referred to the hypothecation of the Customs' dues; to the daily deposits in the National Bank; and to the indiscriminate sale of the bonds of the loan, in case the Government failed to reimburse the advances made on account of the negotiation. In other words, the bankers are willing to make concessions and to remove the conditions which were the cause of the failure of the first negotiations; on the other hand, they wish to treat with the Government direct and refuse to sign a contract 'ad referendum.' Thus, Pellegrini returns with promises and fair prospects, but nothing more.

These advices, rather these rumors had a great influence on the gold market, and the premium stood firm, in spite of the brisk speculation for a fall. Towards the close of official hours, however, a visible feeling of weakness began to be apparent, and the market closed weak. Operations in gold for cash embraced $92,000: the market opened at 38.30, rose to 38.40, and closed at 38. Over one hundred thousand dollars changed hands for to-morrow at the same premium. Seven hundred thousand dollars were sold for the end of the month; the resistance of the bulls was stubborn for the 30th, and the market fluctuated heavy all morning between 38.20 and 38.3c; the closing rate, however, was 38, sellers. Operations for the end of October amounted to 265,000: rates opened at 37½, rose to 37.80, and closed at 37. Small amounts were sold at 36½ for the end of November, 37 for the end of the year and at 38 for the 26th inst. Operations during official hours amounted to a million and a quarter.

There was a pause in the Cedula market today, and yesterday's spurt in National Bank stock died out completely. A few thousand dollars changed hands at 101, E at 81½ and F at 80½-½. Over seventy thousand G were sold cash at 87½-½ and a few thousand for October at 87. Stocks have reached their maximum prices for the present, as paper money is springing into demand and the market is becoming gradually tight.

The auditting Committee of the National Bank are sitting, but the task they have in hands is such a delicate and difficult business and their sphere of action is so limited that the general opinion is, that nothing will be done. One of the first resolutions of the Committee was to apply to the President of the Bank for certain information and details. Mr Sastre will probably refuse to give same, as he cannot very well enter into an investigation and discussion in which he is personally interested, and which he called upon the government to make. Thus the matter stands, and the Committee are on the horns of a dilemma.

The cattle king sent a note to the liquidator to-day, stating that his principal has refused to sign the bills to meet his differences. Thus the business must be closed with the 30 o/o in the liquidation.

Coming events cast their shadows before them. The other day we referred to a speculative rumor concerning the mortgage section of the National Bank. To-day the news is that the Cabinet are studying the question and the best means of carrying out the Bill of Congress in this regard. On 'Change it is rumoured that twenty millions of dollars will be issued to lend on mortgages. It is to be hoped that the Government will let the Bill sleep until we return to specie payments. Any further issue of paper, even for the laudable purpose of helping landlords of the Interior, would increase the evils of forced currency.

The following is a summary of operations effected this morning at the ring during official hours:—

Mr E Norton, late manager of the Lamport & Holt line of steamers, left in the Tagus for England. He was accompanied to the Mole by a crowd of friends and we all hope to see him back soon again in the R. Plate. During his management of that important line of steamers, his great affability and politeness secured for that line increased popularit,yand, although his residence in the R. Plate was not very long, still few English merchants had a wider circle of friends, and his absence in many circles will be felt.

The public sales of wool in Havre began yesterday. The quantity of wool offered at auction was very small. The results of sales of the first day show a fall, ranging from five to 10 centimes per kilo, compared with closing rates of the July auction. The sheepskin auction ought to begin in Bordeaux today; a fall is also expected in this article.

The gold market ruled dull and weak during afterhours. The market closed with sellers at 37.90. Affairs in the liquidation parlor looked very bearish. But for the purchases of some strong outsiders, there would be a collapse in the premium.

Exchange circles were dull this morning. There was the shadow of a firmer feeling in rates, 46⅞ to 47d. on London. Little doing.

The extension works of the Western Railway from Tolosa to Magdalena were commenced yesterday.

The Lamothe island, one of the most enchanting spots in the Tigre, surrounded by bowers of innocence and ease, has been bought by Mr. Lorenzo Bossi for 8,100 m/n. Messrs Bollini & Muro were the auctioneers; they put up the island at auction, bidding beginning at the upset price of 5,897 m/n, and knocked the place down, island, chalet and all to Mr. Bossi.

The 786 squares of land, situated in the district of Carmen the Arseo, and belonging to the 'testamentaria' of the late J J Vega, have been sold at auction for 80,000 m/n. The upset price of the auction was 33,77 m/n. Buyer, Mr Manuel Lynch.

One thousand immigrants were conveyed to-day from the island of Martin Garcia to San Fernando, after undergoing a thorough washing and disinfecting process. These immigrants arrived in the steamers Orione, Ville de San Nicolas, and Pampa. The Immigration Hotel in this city is quite empty; the few families that remained yesterday have been despatched to Santa Fe, where they will find immediate employ. There is a great scarcity of hands in this capital, in the Province of Buenos Ayres and in Santa Fe. In the latter Province they will need every emigrant that may arrive between this and the month of December. Agriculture will make Santa Fe the most populous Province of the Republic before the end of this century.

The shareholders of the Bahia Blanca saladero have been summoned for the third and last time to attend a general meeting to hear the report of the Board on the working of the company for the last eight months. The report cannot be long, as the work done is not much to speak of.

The British steamer Liverpool, with general cargo, and the French steamer Gironde were allowed free pratique yesterday. The latter steamer arrived with 226 passengers and immigrants.

The returns of the Custom House of this city amounted to 59,256 m/n yesterday. The receipts for the last eighteen days amount to 1,176,587 m/n. The returns of the real estate office yesterday amounted to 23,039 m/n. The stamp office gave 4,977 m/n.

Although the arrivals of wheat last fortnight, especially from the rivers, were much under the average, prices remained weak. The cause of this weakness in the situation is traced to the dull condition of the flour market. The millers have a heavy stock on hand, especially in the Province of Santa Fe, and flour is moving off very slowly. The new wheat cannot as yet work any influence on the market, as the first consignments of the new harvest are not expected till the end of the year.

Maize shews a flatter tendency, owing to the fall in the premium on gold. Some parties state that advices from Europe are not favorable to the grain. Prices per fanega on board are quoted at $2.19 to $2.23 for white maize, and a little higher for the yellow quality.

Farmers state that, if the fine weather continues and the plantations give an average yield, the linseed crop this season will reach fabulous proportions. The export of the seed next year promises to eclipse anything we have seen in the grain business up to the present. This great spurt in the growth of linseed arises from the losses which farmers have sustained in wheat. All the 'chacareros' have plunged into linseed, and if the 'bicho' worm spares the crop, they will make up for all previous losses. Linseed contracts are spoken of at 58 to 62 cents national money per arroba put on board in bag: the buyer advances the planter both seed and money.

Messrs. A. Bullrich & Co., sold yesterday twenty one pure Rambouillet rams from the Plomer cabaña, and two rams imported from the cabaña of Messrs Saenger in Schmoelln Benzlau, as follows:—

We take the following from the London Mark Lane Express of the 17th ult.:—
The depression which existed in the frozen meat market has been increased rather than diminished during the past week. Stocks of frozen mutton have been augmented; and, though quotations only exhibit a slight reduction, lower rates would have to be accepted to clear any considerable quantity. The arrival of the large cargo per Elderslie, in a more or less damaged condition, has also had an injurious effect upon the trade, which, in the existing state of supply and demand, is specially susceptible to such adverse influences. Supplies at home-fed mutton have been ample, but not excessive, whilst large quantities of American and Continental beef, killed in this country have been offering at very low rates. Expected arrivals are as follow:—Ionic (s), now off coast; Aorangi (s), due on 15th inst.; Northumberland and Dunedin, from the New Zealand ports; Liguria (s), from Melbourne; Wexford (s), from the River Plate.

"The following statement from the last Circular of the New Zealand Mercantile Agency Co. shows the results of the various consignments in course of realisation both here and in the provinces:—

"Elderslie from Oamaru with 25,788 sheep, 758 lambs; 7,000 Carcases sold to date. Price per lb. up to 4½d. or sound. Condition unsatisfactory.

Lady Jocelyn from Napier with 9,363 sheep; Carcases sold to date. Price per lb. 3¾d. to 4½d. Condition good.

Austral from Melbourne with 3,362 sheep; 200 Carcase sold to date. Price per lb. 4d. Condition good.

Zenobia from River Plata with 12,556 sheep 335 qrs. bf. Condition report'd good.

Cuzco from Melbourne with 3,677 sheep. Condition reported good.

Invercargill from Lyttleton with 9,240 sheep. Condition reported good.

Mataura from Napier with 5,737 sheep. Condition reported good.

*Up to date about 5,000 carcases have been condemned as unfit for food.
